

Problem Solving Styles

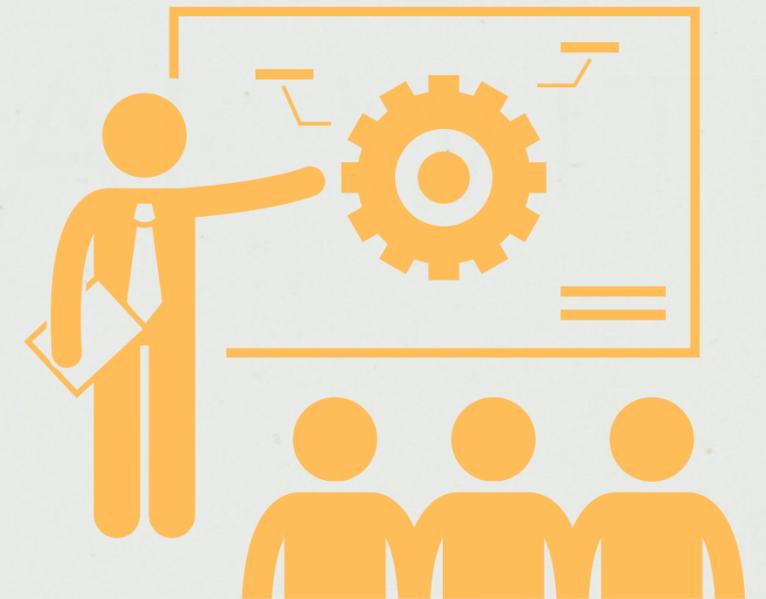

Initiator

Strategist

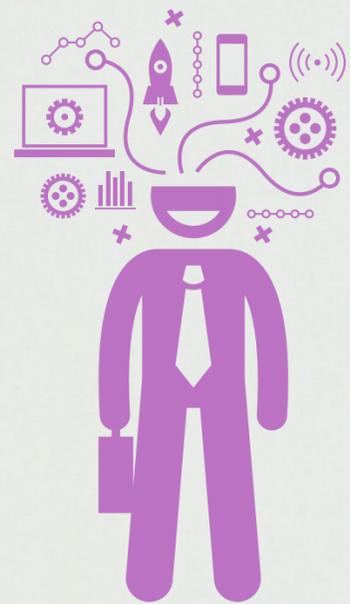

Tactician

Operator

Problem Solving Styles

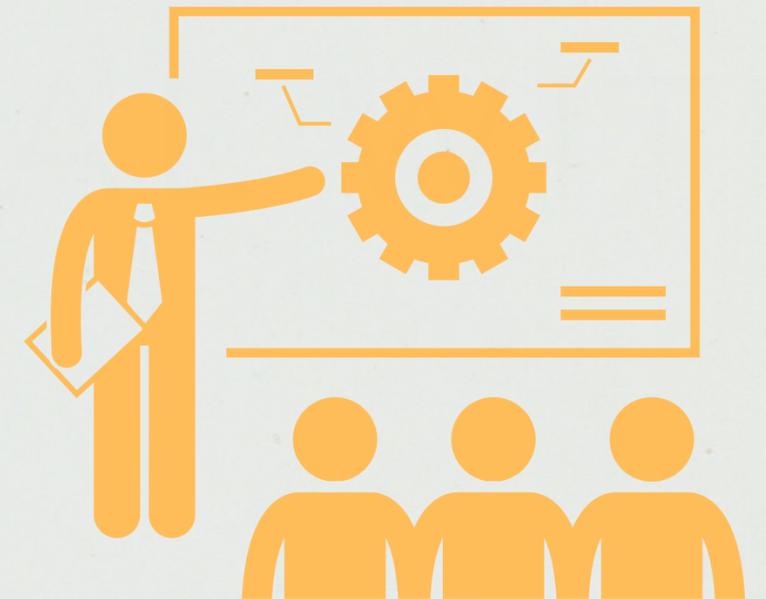

Initiator

Strategist

Tactician

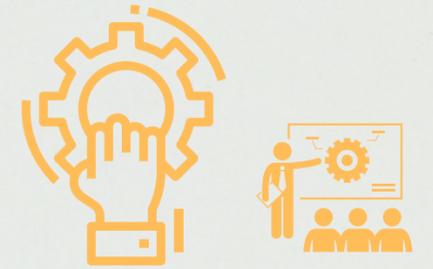

Operator

Problem Solving Main Stages

4. EXECUTION

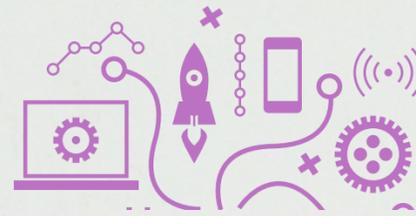

3. DEVELOPMENT

2. ENGAGEMENT

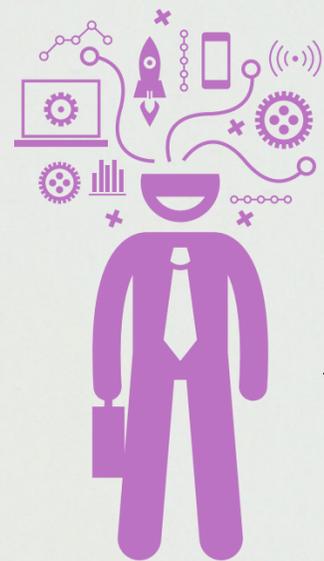

1. PREPARATION

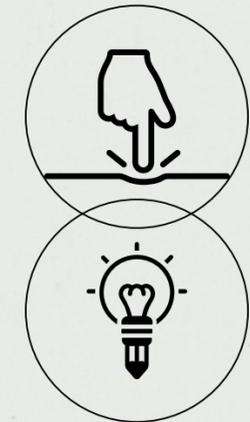

Problem Solving Styles

Practical Ideation

INITIATOR

- learning directly - hands on study
- creative usage of knowledge

- vital at the Preparation Stage

- tags problems
- brainstorms ideas and next steps
- identifies opportunities

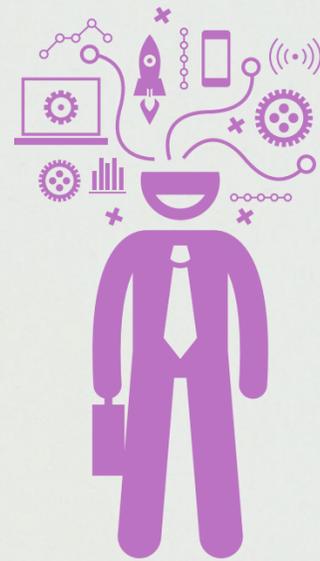

Problem Solving Styles

Practical Ideation

HOW TO RECOGNISE AN INITIATOR?

- Often a calm person
- Meticulous
- Studious
- Patient
- Adores amassing data

INITIATOR

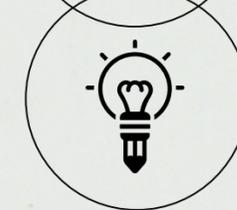

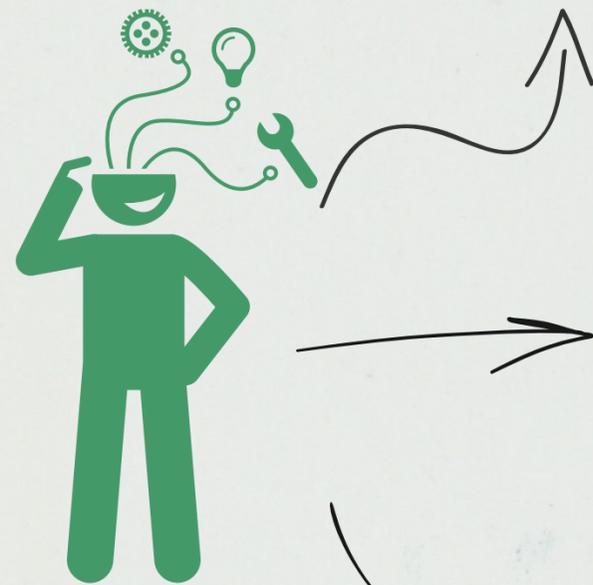

Problem Solving Styles

Theoretical Ideation

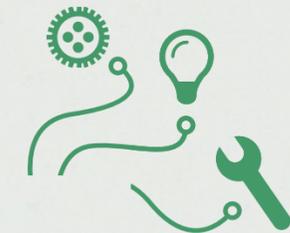

- learning indirectly - analysis
- creative usage of knowledge

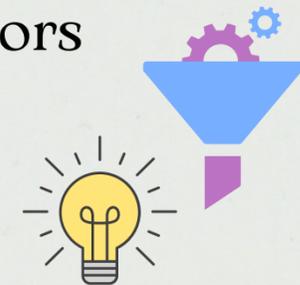

STRATEGIST

- great at the Engagement Stage

- filters the information from Initiators and extract the most crucial one
- produces brilliant ideas

Problem Solving Styles

Theoretical Ideation

HOW TO RECOGNISE A STRATEGIST?

- Quick-witted (connects the dots fast)
- Precise
- Likes their own ways of doing things

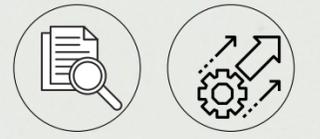

STRATEGIST

Problem Solving Styles

Theoretical Assessment

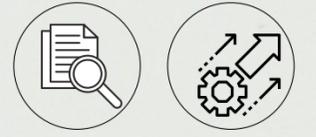

TACTICIAN

- learning indirectly - analysis
- uses knowledge to improve existing ideas
- great at the Development Stage
- changes Strategists' big ideas into feasible plans
- analytical skills

Problem Solving Styles

Theoretical Assessment

HOW TO RECOGNISE A TACTICIAN?

- Diligent
- Unemotional
- Often points out weak points in plans

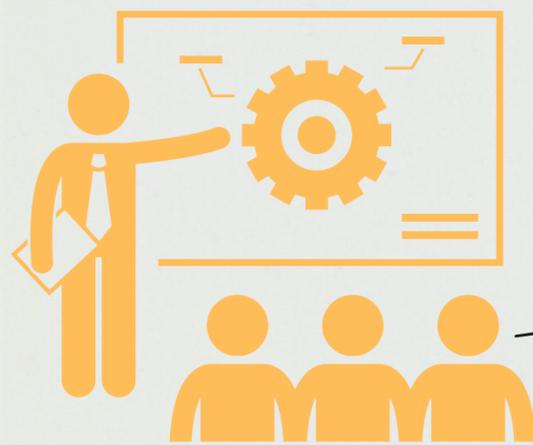

TACTICIAN

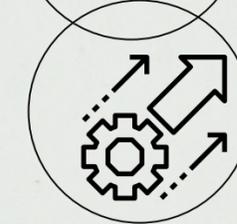

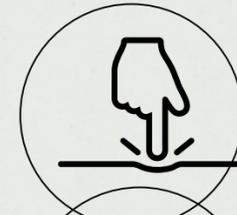

Problem Solving Styles

Practical Assessment

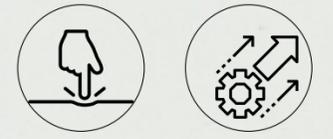

OPERATOR

- learning directly - hands on study
- uses knowledge to improve existing ideas
- great at the Execution Stage
- changes audacious plans into reality

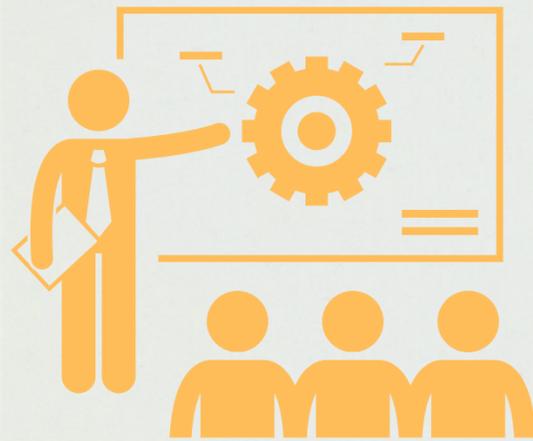

Problem Solving Styles

Practical Assessment

HOW TO RECOGNISE AN OPERATOR?

- Impatient
- Doer
- Ready to take risks

OPERATOR

Problem Solving Main Stages

1. PREPARATION

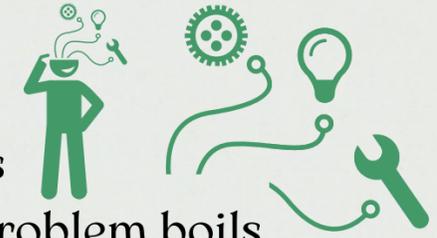

- collecting information
- drilling down the problem
- coming up with next steps

PROBLEM?

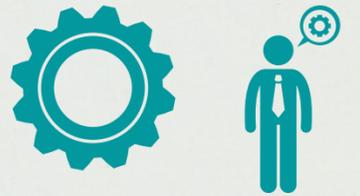

2. ENGAGEMENT

- producing solutions
- defining what the problem boils down to

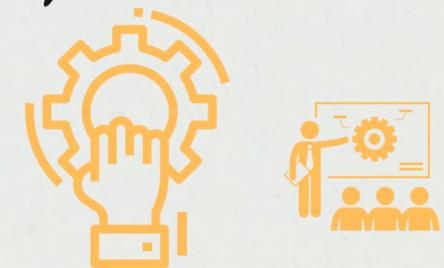

3. DEVELOPMENT

- developing an action plan

4. EXECUTION

- going ahead with the plan

Problem Solving Main Stages

MORE INFO:

WWW.HOWTO-DEALWITH.COM